Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.181 to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

Petitioner respectfully requests reconsideration on the Decision In Petition mailed Aug 01, 2006, Paper No. 14.

Office requested the copies of documentation records showing where petitioner would have entered the receipt date of the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment had petitioner received it. The petitioner has duly enclosed copies of the following records:

1. Photocopies of USPTO envelopes on which the petitioner noted actions required to respond to USPTO Office Actions. These records are marked as "Doc. #1" and "Doc. #2". Please note that some written notes have been blacked out. These notes are confidential notes regarding the various marketing channels that the petitioner was exploring for the said application. The petitioner wishes that this information remains confidential and not to be placed in the public record.
2. Printouts of three (3) months for the year 2004 from the petitioner's Outlook software. These records have been marked as "Doc. # 3.0", "Doc. # 3.1" and "Doc. # 3.2". Please note that some calendar entries have been partially blacked out. These notes are confidential entries. The petitioner wishes that this information remains confidential and not to be placed in the public record.

Over the past few years the petitioner has been experiencing a somewhat erratic delivery of his mail to the above stated address. The petitioner did report this erratic mail delivery to his relevant postmaster (i.e. ZIP code 20817-2403). The postmaster that the petitioner spoke with was DK. His office phone number is 301.767.1742. This could be a possible explanation for the non-delivery of the USPTO office actions under petition.

The applicant hereby respectfully requests reconsideration of the Abandonment of his application due to the fact that he did not receive the relevant PTO mailings.

Very respectfully,

Per Se Applicant:

Lester Sussman
